Office Order No.: 1764

Dated: 11-01-2020

In recent past, WBSEDCL authority was approached by different banks to deduct the outstanding personal loan, which had been taken by retired WBSEDCL employees, from different banks having their pension accounts. It appears that those pensioners have transferred their account in which monthly pensions have been remitted by WBSEDCL from the existing bank to another bank without paying off the loans. WBSEDCL normally regret the request from the bank as there is no scope to recover outstanding personal loan from pension of the respective pensioner.

However, in order to ward off such undesirable situation and maintain a smooth and cordial relationship with the banks, it is hereby ~~Ordered~~ that-

- a) To transfer the account from one branch to another branch within the same bank, current prevailing rules/procedure is to be followed.
- b) To transfer the account from one bank to another bank, a 'No Objection Certificate' for transferring the bank account from the existing bank is to be obtained and submitted to the Addl. General Manager(F&A), Terminal Claims in original along with the application for change of bank.
- c) The photocopy of the new passbook wherein the photograph of the account holder/holders duly affixed and attested by the bank is to be submitted in all cases.
